

Danuta W. Zariczny

August 17, 2024

Danuta Wiktoria Zariczny (Krawczyk), of North Syracuse, passed away at 92. Donna was born in Krakow, Poland, the first of three children, to Anna Plewniak and Jozef Krawczyk. She attended college and received her degree in accounting. With similar careers, she met her husband Wlodzimierz Zariczny, whom she later married in 1964 and had a son, Rafal.

The family emigrated to Syracuse, NY in 1981, to pursue a better life. In 1985, she lost her husband to a sudden heart attack and became a single mom. Through hard work and determination she progressively moved forward. The two of them bought a home in Cicero, NY. She retired from ACS/Business Records Corporation after 20 years of service.

Donna liked to travel in her retirement years and visited Poland many times. She was a great cook, making specialty dishes during the holidays. Donna was a devoted wife, a devout Catholic and a loving mother who adored her son. She will be deeply missed. She is survived by her sister Krystyna and son Rafal.

The family would like to thank the aides and nurses at CPN&R for their care and kindness for the last two years of her life.

A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Rose of Lima Church in North Syracuse on Friday, August 23, at 10:00 am. Burial will be at St. Mary's Cemetery in Dewitt.
