

Edward Walter Kazmirski

December 25, 2015

Edward Walter Kazmirski went to be with our Lord Jesus Christ on Christmas Day. Born on May 17, 1929 to Edward and Catherine Kazmirski in Syracuse, New, York, he graduated from Vocational High School and worked for New Venture Gear for 42 years, retiring in 1990. Edward loved bowling, hunting with family, singing with the Dooley Choir and working on cars. He was predeceased by his brother Henry Kazmirski in 1986.

Edward leaves behind his wife of 65 years, Frances; sons Edward and John; grandsons Edward, Peter and Adam Kazmirski, ten great-grand children; brothers Stanley, Walter and John and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

A mass of Christian Burial will be at 9:30 am Tuesday, at the Sacred Heart Basilica. Friends may call upon the family from 4:00 to 7:00 pm Monday, at the Giminski-Wysocki Funeral Home; 1320 W. Genesee Street in Syracuse.

Burial: Sacred Heart Cemetery in Geddes.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Syracuse Polish Home, or to the restoration of the church hall at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus; 927 Park Ave. 13204.
