

Helen Baginski

May 19, 2024

Helen Baginski, 94, passed away peacefully at the Cottages in Cicero on Sunday. She was a lifelong resident of Syracuse. Helen worked at the Syracuse VA, until her retirement in 1984. She was a communicant of the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus all her life, where she was an active member of the Rosary Society, as well as a volunteer in many fundraising activities, including the parish bingo at the Polish Home in Syracuse. She was also active in several golf and bowling leagues where she won many awards. Helen was also a member of Polish dancing exhibitions, that she enjoyed in her earlier years.

She was predeceased by her parents, Felix and Catherine Bagenski, and her brothers Stanley, William and Henry. She is survived by several nieces, nephews and her special pride and joy: great niece Amy Bodrog and great nephew Benjamin Bagenski.

A Mass of Christian Burial for Helen will be held 9:30am Thursday, at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus; 927 Park Avenue in Syracuse. Burial: Sacred Heart Cemetery in Geddes.
