

Irene Esther Fabian

March 8, 2019

Irene Esther Fabian, 95, beloved Mom and Babci, passed away peacefully at her home on Friday surrounded by her family.

A remarkable woman who lived alone and maintained her own home and garden into her 90s, her passing marks the end of an era. In her youth, her family lived off the land in rural Pennsylvania, where she attended a one-room schoolhouse. A parishioner of Sacred Heart for over 70 years, she served as president of the Mother's Club.

Preceded by her husband, Paul Peter Fabian in 1974, and her eldest son Paul Joseph Fabian in 2010, she is survived by her son, Stephen and his wife Surabela (Bunny); and six grandchildren: Janine, Katerina, Broche, Evelyn, Julia and Alexander.

Friends may call upon the family from 1:00 to 2:00 pm, Sunday, March 10 at Giminski-Wysocki Funeral Home; 1320 W. Genesee St., Syracuse. Mass will be held 9:30 am Monday, March 11, at The Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus; 927 Park Avenue, Syracuse. Burial: Sacred Heart Cemetery, Geddes.

“ To Stephen, Bunny, and all the grandchildren. I was deeply saddened to her of Aunt Esther passing. I am in Southern Florida visiting my son. Pati and I will not be able to make the funeral. The last time I saw Babci was this past summer. I stopped over and chatted with her for some time. She is and was a great lady. We always shared many memories from the past and spoke about getting older. She always bragged about her granddaughters and how they looked after her. I will miss her wit, straightforwardness, and loving ways. My deepest sympathy to the family.

Sincerely,

Allen Gancarz
