“ I want to say I'm sorry for your loss of your brother Keith. 67 is way to young!! Karen died way to young. As we age we see all our old friends dying, it makes us wonder when is it our turn. Keith was a wild and crazy guy, we hope he still gets to be wild and crazy in Heaven. Dan and I are sending prayers for his family to get through another tragedy in their lives .

So sorry and sending sympathy to the family and friends! I remember when he painted the pool pump house to replicate Pink Floyd, The Wall. He did some crazy things over the years but will be remembered for them. Keith, I hope you have a great time on the other side! 🧐😊
