very sorry to hear of Mary's passing. i did not know her well, but she sat with me at Mrs. DiBello's gathering after the burial, and she was a year behind me in school. I always remember her smiling and know she was a very close friend to Odetta Dibello. May she R.I.P. and God Bless her family!

“ Mary brought out the best in every one she knew. She inspired me to be a better person in so many ways, more charitable, more civic minded, more thoughtful and kind. She knew my heart when I didn't know myself. I love her dearly and am blessed to have known her. I know she will be a guardian angel to me for the rest of my life. I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family, I wish you the peace and comfort only God can give.
