

Olga Stroud

September 25, 2025

Olga Stroud, 93, of Solvay, New York, passed away peacefully of old age in her home. Olga was born in Syracuse, New York, but lived in Solvay for the majority of her life. She was a communicant of Ss. Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Church. Olga graduated from Solvay High School in 1951, and worked at both Allied Chemical and Rollway Bearing before meeting, and marrying her loving husband, Robert Allan Stroud. She was an avid baker, active in church, working at the church's bingo hall as well as being a poll worker on election days.

A strong-willed, and determined woman, Olga will be sorely missed by her friends and family. Olga was predeceased by her husband, Robert; her parents Parfen and Anna (Skarupa) Bazluki; sisters Ann Makarwicz and Marion Kaden and brother Gregory Bazluki. She is survived by her son, Greg, and her nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Thursday, October 2nd, from 9:00 AM, with a mass at 10:00 AM, at Ss. Peter and Paul Orthodox Catholic Church; 401 Hamilton Street, Syracuse, New York 13204. Burial will take place at Ss. Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Cemetery. The family is hugely grateful to Tammy Williams, and Colleen and John Fall, who helped take excellent care of Olga in her final years. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to <https://novaukraine.org/donate/>
