

Otylia Galaj

October 23, 2021

Otylia Galaj (née Szewczyk) passed away at home at the age of 93. She was born in Dębina, Poland and lived through the war as a teen. Otylia came to America in 1950 and married Zygmunt Galaj. She was widowed in 1997. Otylia was a very loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. What a fantastic cook and baker! No one could match her pierogi. We always met at HER house for birthdays and holidays. She always had a warm smile, and very strong and unwavering Faith and love for her Polish heritage.

Otylia is survived by daughters; Wanda Galaj, Gina (Ron) Geiler and Terri Sanford; five grand children and four great-grandchildren. Services were private. Donations may be made to Hospice of Central New York; 990 7th N St, Liverpool, NY 13088.
