

Richard A. Camken

June 13, 1931 - August 21, 2022

Richard Camken, 91, of Auburn, passed away at Delhi Rehabilitation and Nursing Center.

Born in Syracuse, initially Richard followed in the footsteps of his father Alexander Camken, a barber of 40 years, in taking over the business. Then over the years, he changed his career and was employed by the West Genesee School District as a Head Custodian, where he retired.

His hobbies were hunting, fishing and bowling, which his children enjoyed with him.

He was predeceased by his parents, Alexander and Cecilia (Bator) Camken, and his loving wife, Frances of 67 years, who passed November 2021.

Surviving are their loving children; daughter, Debbie Feeley (Peter Briggs) of Auburn; son,

Richard Camken (Kim) of Syracuse; three grand-children: Kiel Camken, Jessica Feeley Walsh, (Lauren Walsh) and Matthew Feeley; and great grandson Giacomo "Jack" Walsh (Giacco, to GG Pop); and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services will be private. Burial will be at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Lakeland. Richard and his loving wife, Frances will both be laid to rest.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Delhi Rehabilitation and Nursing Center; 41861 St Hwy 10, Delhi, NY 13753.
