

Richard C. Kellogg

January 6, 2022

Richard C. Kellogg, 91, of Baldwinsville passed away unexpectedly at home in his sleep.

Richard was born in the hamlet of Jack's Reef, New York. He graduated from Jordan-Elbridge High School in 1948. After graduation he joined the US Army and was stationed in Germany. Richard eventually settled back to the Syracuse area, working in automotive sales for many years. He retired from Heritage Lincoln Mercury in 1993. He loved Syracuse and all of his friends and family, and he will be truly missed.

Ralph is predeceased by the love of his life Nancy Lynch. He is survived by his son, Ryan P. Kellogg of Syracuse and his sister, Marlene Foote (Richard) of Skaneateles.

Family and friends may call from 3:00 to 6:00 PM Wednesday, at the Giminski-Wysocki Funeral Home; 1320 West Genesee Street in Syracuse. Face Masks are required.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard C. Kellogg

January 28, 2023 at 02:06 PM

“ I am sorry to hear Dick passed away. He was so proud of his son Ryan, it gave him a new lease on life. He was great to work with and he was a heck of a salesman.

*Sincerely,
Sue Riccardi-Bova (richmark)*

Susan Bova - May 28, 2022 at 03:56 PM

“ *Dear Marlene & Family, First let me say how sorry I am about the passing of your brother. I am hoping you are the Marlene Foote I use to work with at Blue Cross-Blue Shield so many years ago....if you are not, then I am sorry for leaving a message for the family. If you are that Marlene then I hope you are well and once again repeat how sorry I am about your loss.
God Bless,
Shelly Polge*

Shelly Polge - January 11, 2022 at 09:33 AM