“ A father, husband, brother and friend to many. Besides normal teachings that parents provide he taught me a work ethic that I still display today. He taught me death before dishonor as a marine Corp veteran and to always walk proud and stand for what you believe in. Neither he or I are perfect but we did and still do have a kind heart and alway took care of the lady family members in our family as a handyman, caretaker and confidant. Never a weekend off taking care of the older aunts and mother and gra mothers how husband's had passed. Best hunter and fisherman I've ever seen. Love you and will miss you and will continue to use a gold or silver mepps 5 lures for the northerners pike. Love you dad.
