

Virginia Chrostowski Kozura

August 22, 2020

Virginia Chrostowski Kozura passed away on Saturday, at the age of 100.

Virginia enjoyed being surrounded by her family. She had an infectious smile and loved to laugh. Her favorite activity was cooking and baking for her family and friends.

Predeceased by her husband of 59 years, Anthony Kozura in 1999, Virginia is survived by her children: James (Carol) Kozura, Paula Kozura and Karen Bandoblu; her five grandchildren: Chris Sanders, Elizabeth Sanders, Audra (Jeff) MacCollum, Jennifer (Stephen) Knohl, Stacy (Matt) Kilgore, Dawn (Sigmund) VanDamme; her nine great grandchildren: Jillian Sanders, Nicholas and Zachary MacCollum, Connor and Caitlyn Knohl, Celia Kilgore and Gunnar, Helen and Vivian VanDamme.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family, with burial following immediately after, at St. John the Baptist Ukrainian Catholic Cemetery. A Memorial Service will take place at a later date.

In lieu of flowers a memorial contribution can be directed to a charity of one's choice.

“ Jim, Paula, and Karen, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Even though it's been 50+ years that I've seen your parents, I still remember your mother's smile, and your father brush cut. Remember the good times to help you get through these trying times. Jimmy the last time I saw you was at our 10th reunion where we sat and talked for some time. Growing up I always considered you a close friend and still do. Again I'm sorry for your loss. Flip
